What can we learn (some truths in the passage)?

- Jesus is willing and able to powerfully heal people of things others cannot. Compassion and power like know one else.
- Jesus says it's faith in Him that causes the healings.
- They both demonstrate their faith by reaching out risking public shame and falling at Jesus feet! Desperate and confident in him!
- Both the respected in the community and the unrespected have same access to Jesus and his saving power! Through faith.

Main Message to Teach:

- ✓ God's saving power comes through faith in Jesus

Application / what to do in response:

- ✓ Surrender yourself to Jesus through humble prayer. (Thank him that he saves you from what others cannot! Sin and death.)

Discussion Questions

1. What 2 ways did Jesus show his power in the two stories today?
2. So if he's got the power over sicknesses and even death(!), is there anything that he is not powerful enough to do? Healing? Savings?
3. So he's able to help us! But is he willing? Is Jesus kind and caring?
4. Faith means trusting and depending on someone else. Is that what believing in Jesus means? Do you have faith/belief in Jesus?
5. How do you show your faith in Jesus?
6. In today's story, How did the man Jairus show his faith in Jesus?
7. Also in today's story, How did the lady show her faith in Jesus?
8. What would it look like for you to "fall at Jesus feet"? How?

Prayer: Dear God, You are willing and able to save us. Please help us to pray to you always, falling at your feet, like Jairus and the Woman in today's story – help us to have faith in Jesus, and be healed from even our greatest sickness of sin and death. We love you God, In Jesus Amen.

Bonus Activities & Discussion

9. Create a Prayer Journal. Write down the things you can come to Jesus and ask him for. Check back after time to see how he answers your prayers. :-)

10. Faith is for everyone! Who in your community needs faith in Jesus to be set free? Pray for them!

Lord's Prayer: Our Father in Heaven...
